

Brightly beams our Father's mercy
From the lighthouse evermore;
But to us He gives the keeping
Of the lights along the shore.
Let the lower lights be burning!
Send a gleam across the wave!
Some poor fainting, struggling seaman,
You may rescue, you may save.

“We pledge to you that we are maintaining our commitment to excellent ministry training based on the three values of God’s Word, lost people, and the Lord’s Church.”

THIS YEAR-END EDITION of Lifeline provides a summary of Sunset ministries and some very exciting prospects for 2005. There is consistent agreement among our people that 2004 was one of the finest ministry years in our 42 year history. God blessed us with open doors, good quality and numbers of students, excellent faculty and staff and world-wide influence. We began the year with a challenge to overcome the financial set backs of a post 9-11 economy and the diminished contributions affecting so many ministries. Congregations and individuals responded with generosity enabling us to begin December, 2004 within sight of our financial goal for the year. We look forward to growing ministry opportunities and quality in 2005. We also look forward to revealing a comprehensive financial campaign which is designed to put Sunset on a path to greater financial stability and security within the years ahead.

At the end of this year we are asking you to do several very important things in partnership with us.

1. Please pray fervently for us, our students and our world-wide staff who sacrifice so much to make themselves available for God’s work.

2. Consider a generous year-end gift. We need a good financial month to help us conclude 2004 with the financial resources to fund the ministries which bless so many people around the world.

3. Put the Sunset ministry in your budget plan for 2005. We need at least 25 new congregational partners and 100 new individual donors for the new year to continue our ministry values and vision. If you are a current partner, please consider an increase for next year of five to ten percent.

We express our heart-felt gratitude to our ministry partners for your prayers, your enthusiastic support and your generous contributions. We are constantly praying for God’s rich blessings in your lives, your families and your congregations. We pledge to you that we are maintaining our commitment to excellent ministry training based on the three values of God’s Word, lost people and the Lord’s church.

May the Lord richly bless you with a joyful year and a prosperous and fruitful new year.

Resident Studies

Sunset's main campus in Lubbock is at the center of all we do

THE RESIDENTIAL STUDIES DIVISION of Sunset, began over 40 years ago and continues to be the flagship of the school, the home base for all other operations.

We are involved in fulfilling our three-fold mission: Ministry Training, World Evangelism, and Church Development. Each year some two hundred students from all over the USA and from several foreign countries gather in Lubbock, Texas to be trained in mind, heart, and body to take the saving message of Calvary to every man, woman, and child on this good earth. We train students in all the different programs in ministry skills. Using the Word of God, our instructors equip His disciples for works of service. As we assemble for chapel each day, the Hall of Flags reminds us of our world full of lost people and the Lord's commission to take the gospel to those people. While at Sunset a student can't help but be influenced to think of this big world from God's point of view. He is taught by teachers who have spent many years living in foreign mission fields and who continue to have a mission heart for the world. They hear guest speakers repeating the Macedonian call. Whether a student goes himself to a mission field stateside or abroad, we want him to see the mission field wherever he labors. That's the mission heart we desire for everyone who walks these halls.

The students are not perfect when they come or when they leave, but to place willing transformable people at the feet of godly teachers, to mentor them individually, and to provide ministry training opportunities presents a winning combination. We have watched the Lord do marvelous things in the lives of many. And we continue to marvel at what He does through them once on the fields of ministry.

Our graduates have shared the good news of Jesus in over one hundred countries. Hundreds of thousands will populate heaven as a result of their work. Thousands of churches have been planted, countless leaders trained, and many acts of kindness enacted. Approximately one-third of our mission force in foreign countries are Sunset graduates. Teams of graduates presently labor in several big cities in Mexico and Brazil. Others train national preachers in our branch schools. Still others run satellite schools where some 7,000 people study the same materials on video or DVD which are taught in the residential school.

In this country some one-fourth of our pulpits are filled by Sunset graduates. However, many of our pulpits are empty, because all of our brotherhood training schools cannot seem to keep up with pulpit attrition. So let's keep on training effective spokesmen for our stateside pulpits. As you can see, the Residential Division is a boot camp to train people to be equipped and qualified workers for the kingdom. We send them forth into a world that is a mission field to plant churches, develop healthy and mature churches, and preach the gospel all over the world. That's who we are and what we are up to.

Charles graduated from Sunset in 1972. Afterwards he served as a missionary in New Zealand and a pulpit minister in Oklahoma. He returned to Sunset as an instructor in 1989. He became the Dean of the Residential Studies Division in 1998.

Preaching Ministry

TRAINING PREACHERS AND TEACHERS is the heart of what we do. We currently have 205 students in our residential school counting students attending our evening school. As you read through this report, you will see that we provide many other valuable services to the church as well.

Deaf Ministry

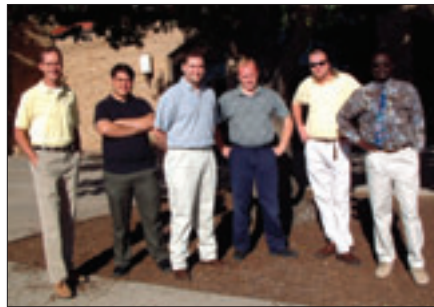

APPROXIMATELY 2% OF THE WORLD'S population is deaf. We offer students the tools needed to communicate with these people so that they, too, can have the privilege of knowing our Lord. Hollis Maynard and Bob Anderson teach deaf people our Bible courses. They also teach hearing people how to communicate with the hearing impaired through sign language. Several deaf congregations have been established because of this ministry.

Family & Youth Ministry

ONE OF THE GREATEST mission fields in the world is the family! Our students are trained to reach the family with the gospel and facilitate parents and children to live within God's unique design for quality family life. Spiritually strong families energize the local church with their willingness to engage the world with God's love and truth. Our family-based youth ministry studies offer anyone - the full or part-time student, volunteer worker, or parents - the training to make an eternal difference in the families of their church and community.

Current Family & Youth students

Women's Program

WE BELIEVE THAT trained, knowledgeable women are very important to the growth and life of the church. Three programs of study are available for women at Sunset. Women who work or have small children can enroll in a special women's training class one night per week. For women who work part-time or have other time constraints, a two day per week program is available. For women who are able to attend full-time, a two year, forty course curriculum is available.

Getting ready to "feed the masses" at the Combination Workshop

Focus Northeast

FOCUS NORTHEAST is a mission program based at Sunset in Lubbock, Texas to reach out to the Northeastern states where the church has historically struggled to survive. In the most densely populated region of our nation, there are many places where a congregation of the Lord's church has never existed. Mac Lynn has consistently reported that "the northeast is still the weakest region of the U.S. for churches of Christ." While foreign countries should unquestionably be listed as mission areas, we would be derelict if we overlooked the sixty million residents of the fifth largest mission field in the world - the Northeast.

Remote Classroom

IN 2002, SUNSET ADDED a new feature to our ministry: Interactive Video Tele-conferencing. The first site has been located in Fall River, MA. The students in Fall River are able to interact with the instructor in Lubbock by a teleconferencing hookup. In the fall of 2004 we equipped a second classroom for our remote classroom network. Fall River is starting a record group of students in Level One classes. There are already other locations asking to be connected to our remote classroom network.

Resident Missions Programs

WORLD EVANGELISM HAS BEEN an emphasis at Sunset since the school's inception. Almost every faculty member has served on the mission field during some part of his career. This brings a richness of practical application into the classroom. Biblical truths are not only taught in depth, but the application of those truths are instilled in the hearts of Sunset students.

In 1973, the Sunset Missions Department was begun. This department provides six months of additional, advanced training for our two-year preaching students in missiology and team formation. It helps prepare future missionaries for culture shock and the challenges experienced on the mission field.

Every morning in Chapel, the students gather in the "Flag Room." The Flag Room is lined with flags from every nation in the world. Sunset graduates have gone to 113 nations of the world. Those few countries that have not yet been entered by Sunset graduates are primarily Muslim nations that are hostile to Christianity. Their doors are presently closed, but we pray that the Lord of harvest will soon open those doors so that we can enter just as we have entered behind the Iron Curtain.

Mission Teams

SUNSET'S MISSION VISION is to prepare mission teams to plant churches that are equipped with native leadership, and that are self-propagating congregations not dependent upon American funds. Our intent is to leave healthy congregations that are equipped and empowered to nurture their members and to continue spreading the Good News of Jesus Christ. Six different teams are presently in some stage of preparation for the mission fields.

Adventures in Missions

THE AIM PROGRAM (Adventures In Missions) is changing lives! This year alone, 65 young men and women came from 20 different States and 2 foreign countries. Three motivations bring them each year, 1) to know God better, 2) to know His word and 3) to learn how to teach someone the gospel. As these young people intensely study God's word each day they cannot help but be changed.

Our training lasts for 8 months and during that time each student will spend more than 600 hours in the classroom studying 16 courses. Outside of the classroom they will spend more than 200 hours working with churches around the Lubbock area. They will spend numerous hours working on homework and team building projects as well as participating in a small group one evening each week. With all of the study and experiences they receive, they cannot help but be changed!

The real growth takes place when our students then go in teams to the mission field for 14 to 22 months. As they work alongside experienced missionaries, and get involved with the church and the lives of people, they cannot help but be changed!

AIM is more than just a two year missionary apprentice program, it is an investment in long-term missions! When these young men and women come home they will have a stronger passion for the lost and for mission work. Many return as long-term missionaries. Other AIM students who go on to another focus will be very supportive of others who want to go into missions.

Perhaps you know a young man or woman who would like to know more about AIM. Please give us their names and addresses, and we will be happy to send them information about how they too can become an apprentice missionary.

Senior Adventures in Ministry

SENIOR ADVENTURES IN MINISTRY (SAIM) is designed to help adults move from success to significance. Because most nations in the western world are aging, this segment of the church will continue to increase in number as a valuable, dynamic resource for evangelism and stability.

The three fold approach of SAIM is to: (1) encourage seniors to use their life-skills, hard-won wisdom and maturity in the kingdom, (2) edify seniors via learning more of the Bible while making eternal friends, and (3) enable seniors to step out in faith with skills, wisdom, and knowledge. Seniors have an opportunity to deal with loss issues among peers; grow in wisdom; grow in personal relationships; and grow closer to God. SAIM students have come from 20 states and three foreign countries. At least 40 occupations have been represented. Alumni from SAIM have served in many states in the USA, Mexico, Australia, Indonesia, South Africa, Honduras, Romania, and in the American Indian nations.

SAIM is an excellent resource for helping congregational leaders to keep seniors involved productively and to benefit each individual as well as the entire body of Christ.

International Studies

Training men and women to evangelize within their own nation

IN THE EARLY YEARS of Sunset's ministry, preacher training was offered in Madras, India and Lagos, Nigeria. In most of the last decade, the pace has been accelerated to facilitate the training of preachers in twenty-five global locations. All these schools are required to follow set ministry training standards which vary in their dependence upon Sunset. They all receive some level of guidance or assistance and are following the base Sunset curriculum. They are all required to continue the standards of certification to maintain an affiliate relationship with Sunset. Some are independent of Sunset in financial and administrative matters (Associate). Some are fully administered by Sunset (Branch). And some are working toward certification (Applicant), either as a Branch or as an Associate school. Several of the branch and associate schools have developed extension programs which offer courses using video, DVD, audio, or internet media. Each extension is listed with the corresponding branch or associate school. The various schools and campuses are listed here in their continental locations.

Europe

Donetsk, Ukraine

Jay Don Rogers, Dean

Donetsk, Ukraine (Branch) has graduated over ninety students since its beginning in 1997. Most of the fifty-five churches in the Donbass region are served by our graduates. The school is housed in a multi-story building purchased three years ago near the center of the regional capitol city. Jay Don Rogers has served as Dean since 2001. Several visiting teachers also assist in the instruction of forty students.

Kiev, Ukraine

Kiev, Ukraine (Extension), the capital of the nation, is in its first year of operation as an Extension of Donetsk with eight students.

Barnaul, Russia

Jerry Sisemore, Dean

Barnaul, Russia, (Branch) in Siberia, has already placed fourteen teams in the field. With its all-Russia faculty, guided by Jerry Sisemore, it regularly teaches about twenty students a year. The school moved into its new, five story facility this year, ending years of moving from one rented facility to another.

Athens, Greece

Darrell Wallace, Acting Dean

Athens, Greece (Branch) has a student body of twenty-five students, mostly refugees from many nations in Eastern Europe, the Middle East and Africa. Its graduates are serving churches in Albania, Romania, Bulgaria and Nigeria. It meets in a local church facility. Jim Stamatis has just left as the dean of the effort, being replaced by Acting Dean, Darrell Wallace. Two other teachers will be added this year.

Tirana, Albania

Steve Stamatis, Director

Tirana, Albania (Applicant) is projected for a Fall 2005 beginning in rented facilities in the capital city. Steve Stamatis will direct the effort in cooperation with Dick Ady and the World English Institute.

Africa

Ethiopia

Bahilu Abebe, Dean

Addis Abebe, Ethiopia (Branch) with three additional campuses at Jajura, Sentereia and Nekempt, is training over 100 men a year to return to their churches or to new areas of church planting. Graduates from these schools have started many of the over seven hundred congregations throughout the nation. This preacher training effort is directed by Behailu Abebe, with an all-Ethiopian faculty serving on the four campuses.

Gaborone, Botswana

Dennis Malepa, Director

Gaborone, Botswana (Applicant) conducts an evangelistic mentoring school wherein select evangelists are trained in seminars with on-site mentoring by Dennis Malepa. This program is in its third year.

Agona Swedru, Ghana

David Essuman, Director

Agona Swedru, Ghana (Associate) is training a dozen men under the direction of David Essuman. The school joined Sunset in 2003.

Second year students in Ghana

Lusaka, Zambia

David French, Director

Lusaka, Zambia (Applicant) will begin classes in 2005 in the Central church building, in view of beginning construction of a new facility on fifteen acres outside the nation's capitol. David French will be directing this developing effort.

Asia

Batam, Indonesia

Winston Bolt, Director

Batam, Indonesia (Associate) is training about fifteen students each year who are becoming the church planters throughout the nation. The school is housed in a newly constructed, all purpose facility on the growing edge of the island capitol city. Since its beginning as a Branch school in 1998, over forty men have been trained to preach. It is directed by Winston Bolt, with an all-Indonesian faculty of three men.

The recently completed Batam facility

Seoul, Korea

Jay Cho, Director

Seoul, South Korea (Applicant) has just begun its work in 2004 in training preachers with renewed evangelistic commitments. The school has fifty-eight students housed in the Bible Correspondence Center facility in Seoul. Jay Cho directs this effort.

Angeles, Philippines

Charles Smith, Director

Angeles, Philippines (Associate) with two other locations, has been training about twenty-five students a year for the last ten years. The graduates are being added to the leadership of the churches on the Islands. Charles Smith, along with an all-Philippine faculty, directs the work of the three schools. He joined the Sunset network of schools in 2002.

Americas

Miami, Florida

Kirk McAfee, Dean

Miami, Florida (Branch) instructs students from seventeen Hispanic nations that have migrated to Florida. Since 1998, twenty-five students have followed a part-time course of study. Kirk McAfee has succeeded Rudy Wray in directing the school and its resident faculty. The school is housed in the facilities of the Hialeah church building.

Havana, Cuba

Kirk McAfee, Dean

Havana, Cuba (Extension) has been providing seminar training over the last three years for nearly fifty Cuban preachers, with its first graduating class of twenty-seven in May 2004. A full curriculum school is planned in three years with an all-Cuban faculty.

Santo Domingo, Dominican Republic

Daniel Nin, Director

Santo Domingo, Dominican Republic (Extension) is training forty students in part-time courses with national instructors, meeting in a local church building. Sunset, began in 2001 developing the school in view of it becoming a full curriculum school.

Cap-Hatien, Haiti

David Dirrim, Director

Cap-Hatien, Haiti (Associate) The local church selects twelve men to be instructed in a two year course of study. The school is housed on a well developed campus and is directed by David Dirrim. The language area is French and Creol.

Houston, Texas

Steve Austin, Dean

Houston, Texas (Applicant) has just begun evening classes in view of adding a full-service curriculum in 2005. The school meets in the Pasadena church building.

Quito, Ecuador

Kent Marcum, Director

Quito, Ecuador (Associate) since 1997, has conducted a residential program for close to forty students each year, with an all-Hispanic faculty, directed by Kent

Marcum. The school is housed in the nice facilities of the North Quito church building, with dormitories, cafeteria, etc. Many of the graduates have formed church planting teams in other Ecuadorian cities.

Curitiba, Brazil

Rodney Nealeigh, Dean

Curitiba, Brazil (Applicant) since 2002, is beginning to develop a ministry training effort in the new facilities of the church. Rod Nealeigh, along with a mission team, directs the training effort for churches in the Southern Brazil states.

Toluca, Mexico

Roberto Zepeda, Dean

Toluca, Mexico (Branch) is located in the well-developed facility of the local church building. Since 1998, a Biblical study program and an apprenticeship effort have been conducted. It has also been directing twenty Bible study centers throughout Mexico, through which over 500 people participate in in-depth Bible study. Roberto Zepeda has succeeded Jody Jones as dean of the school.

International Translation Center

INTERNATIONAL STUDIES is much more than schools. For years missionaries and ministry trainers have sought Biblically sound and accurately translated books. The Translation Center is the answer to this need. Its main purpose is to provide quality Biblical resources in the languages of our branch school students.

First, a transcript is made of each course in our External Studies program. Then, each transcript undergoes an extensive editing process to produce the best written format for translation. Afterwards, each manuscript is sent to a highly qualified translation team. Each translation team consists of a native speaking translator, an editor, a linguist and someone who does the final doctrinal reading. Currently, courses are being translated into Arabic, Portuguese, Russian, Spanish and Telegu.

translated materials for Russia and other Eastern European nations. Already, Paid in Full, a study of Romans taught by Richard Rogers has been published. Soon, The Acts of the Apostles, Ephesians and The Sacrificial System will be ready for printing and distribution in Russian. Five books have been translated into Spanish and three into Portuguese, and are ready to be printed. Several others are in the final editing phase and will soon await printing.

The Sunset Church of Christ in Lubbock, Texas has committed to fund the translating and printing of several Arabic books. We are seeking other financial partners who will "adopt a book" or several books in a specific language. We want our students, graduates, and national Christians to have these vital tools as they teach and preach the gospel.

Please contact Doug Reeves or Darlene Morris at (806) 788-3258 or (800) 658-9553 x 258 for more information or to participate with us in this unique and valuable work.

Church Development

Providing teaching materials, seminars and training for local churches

ONE OF THE GREATEST needs in the brotherhood is church development. Sunset has developed a number of tools to help churches grow, to become healthier, to develop leaders, to give Christians a deeper knowledge of God's word, to become more evangelistic, and to be refreshed. Some of these tools are available in written form and others are available on cassette, CD, video tape, and/or DVD format. Many of our faculty and staff are available to bring specialty seminars, gospel meetings, and retreats to church locations. The Combination Workshop held in January is designed to strengthen local churches. Included in this workshop is a special course that teaches the "how and why" of Satellite Schools and promote serious Bible study which in turn impacts church growth and development. Our vision and dedication is to extend the knowledge of the Bible until that knowledge covers the earth as the waters cover the sea.

Virgil Yocham
Dean of External Studies

External Studies

SINCE 1973, EXTERNAL STUDIES has provided a wide range of services to meet the ever growing demand of providing churches with sound, effective, in-depth Bible study materials. This division is responsible for mass production of study guides, videos/DVDs, and audio programs which help countless souls world wide study the Bible in-depth. Course materials for individuals and churches become a permanent addition to their libraries, and can be used by generations still to come!

The courses and materials offered by External Studies are carefully designed and crafted to meet the need for trained, biblically knowledgeable members and to reach the lost with the Gospel.

An integral part of the External Studies ministry are the 300 plus Satellite Schools that have been implemented around the world. This number continues to grow steadily. A Satellite School uses the 40 plus video curriculum to teach people the message of the Bible. For 30 years, External Studies has used the proven method of "distance learning" to teach and reach people hungry for the word of God. Satellite Schools are designed to equip a community of Bible students for personal growth and service to others. The impact of this ministry is significant because individuals and churches are being spiritually matured. A lifetime of service is to be accompanied by a lifelong dedication to learning. Because the task is so great and the consequences eternal, gaining Bible knowledge should never end.

Another exciting development is the offering of courses on the Internet. We are merging timeless truth with modern technology to teach countless numbers of people. Our Internet website (www.sunsetonline.org) will soon make it possible for students to connect and access Sunset courses on-line. All a student will need is e-mail and Internet access. Samples of two courses are already available online for free viewing. The internet makes it possible for us to meet the needs of a large and growing student body, while at the same time, using financial resources in an effective way.

Evening School

THE EVENING SCHOOL has continued to serve the Lubbock area in an effective way. In 2004 more than seventy students availed themselves of several classes including: Isaiah, Luke, I John, Romans, and Jeremiah.

Teachers participating were Doyle Gilliam, Dan Rouse, Gerald Paden, Charles Cook, and Richard Cravy. Several students continue to take classes for Sunset credit with a view toward graduating from our forty course program.

Three-Year Major Funding Campaign

WE REALIZE THAT our local "Preacher Training Sunday" campaign in 2004 is a short-term fix for our shortfall in funding. One may wonder, what about next year and the following year? To place the Institute on a stronger financial footing, a major funding three-year campaign has been initiated. We are currently in the silent phase with plans to launch the public phase in the Spring of 2005. We are excited about the campaign and the long term benefits that it will bring to the Institute. You will be hearing more about this campaign soon.

New Regional Coordinators

TWO NEW REGIONAL Coordinators are being brought on line to work with the Development Dept. Ron Downey, located in California is currently raising support to join the Development team. Jerry Cantrell in Alabama is also raising support for the same purpose. Sammy Flanary has transitioned from his full-time work with the International Division to work with the Development Department. We welcome these new additions to our staff joining Harry Riggs and Everett Hysten in this great ministry.

IN ADDITION TO other duties, Sammy works with Cline Paden coordinating Sunset's Alumni Association keeping in touch with over 3,000 Sunset alumni. Brother De Lukie, alumnus and former instructor at White's Ferry Road School of Preaching, works with over 300 fellow-alumni who are now part of the Sunset alumni family.

These men are keenly aware of the importance of alumni of preacher training schools. Sammy and Don have accepted the challenge of creating a combined alumni association that will enhance the schools and strengthen the resolve of each school in advancing

God's mission in the world. With the merger of these two alumni groups, this fraternal expansion opens the door for renewed importance and interest for alumni from both schools.

With the increase of alumni members, Cline, Don, and Sammy endeavor to maximize communication among the graduates of both schools. Image, effectiveness of mission, recruitment, and fraternal "Tie" will be enhanced in the coming months and years under God's abiding grace.

Legacy Circle

An Investment In Ministry Training

Do you believe in spreading the gospel throughout the world?

Would you like for your estate to accomplish the purposes of God?

Do you want your legacy to extend far beyond your lifetime?

If the answer is “YES” to these questions,
Legacy Circle is for you!!!

Legacy Circle members are partners in the future ministry of Sunset International Bible Institute. Training preachers and missionaries, planting new congregations of the Lord’s Church, and equipping leaders for those congregations help to increase the population of heaven. Investment in Sunset leaves a legacy of kingdom growth for generations to come.

Charitable gifts through Legacy Circle are vital to the future of the Sunset International Bible Institute. Funds to attract and retain the brightest and best students and faculty, and to provide much needed assistance for student scholarships must come through charitable giving.

For more information about this exciting program, clip, fill out, and mail the coupon below. We will send you a free Legacy Circle brochure with no obligation or call our Development Office at our toll free number (800) 658-9553; x-259 or call direct to (806) 788-3259 for more information.
